Australian regulatory guidelines for complementary medicines (ARGCM) Part C: Evaluation of complementary medicine substances for use in listed medicines

Dear Members,

The CHC is seeking comment and input from stakeholders on the draft document ARGCM Part C: Evaluation of complementary medicine substances for use in listed medicines.

The ARGCM Part C represents a revision and restructure of the current document 'ARGCM Part III: Evaluation of complementary medicine'. Changes to the original document include formatting, corrections and clarification of information. While the revised document does not introduce any new procedures or procedural changes, the existing ARGCM Part III contained out dated information which has been amended to reflect current regulatory practice.

Comments on the draft document ARGCM Part C can be sent to the CHC by the 8th May 2013 for submission to the TGA by the 14th May 2013.

Submissions may include:

- Suggested improvements, amendments, corrections and areas requiring clarification in the Draft ARGCM Part C.
- Comments on any other issues related to the review of the ARGCM.

The consultation draft document can be found here.

The CHC welcomes enquiries regarding this consultation. Please contact Emma Burchell on 02 6260 4022 or 0451 681 663.
